

Vertical scale is exaggerated 4x the horizontal scale (the same as the brown Smokies book and AT book profiles). e.g. 1000 feet vertical is 250 horizontal.

Profile images are adjusted here to be about 1.65 miles per inch. Different length hikes will have different width profiles. So profiles from various hikes should be comparable – horizontal and vertical scales should be the same.